Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 3, 2022, Mirion Technologies, Inc. (the “Company”) announced the appointment of Michael Rossi, as Medical Group President of the Company.

Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Rossi, age 51, was the Head of Radioligand Imaging for the Advanced Accelerator Applications business of Novartis. Prior to Novartis, Michael spent five years at Jubilant Pharma where he served in several different roles with increasing levels of responsibility. Michael also brings experience from GE Healthcare, Tyco Healthcare/Mallinckrodt and Syncor International to the Mirion team. Michael earned a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy degree from the University of the Sciences – Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and carries the Authorized Nuclear Pharmacist Certification from Butler University. Michael has also served on several Boards of Directors and remains a Licensed Pharmacist in the state of Pennsylvania.

In connection with Mr. Rossi’s appointment, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Rossi. The employment agreement provides for, among other things: (i) an annual base salary of $470,000, (ii) an annual target bonus of 60% of base salary (with such target subject to increase up to a maximum of 120% of base salary or decrease up to a minimum of 30% of base salary, as determined by the Company’s board of directors (the “Board”) or a committee thereof) based upon the achievement of certain performance and individual metrics, (iii) an initial award of restricted stock units (“RSUs”) under the Company’s Omnibus Incentive Plan (the “Plan”) valued at approximately $650,000 and (iv) eligibility to participate in the Company’s health and welfare benefit plans and the Company’s deferred compensation plan. The employment agreement also provides that Mr. Rossi will be eligible for additional equity awards under the Plan with a grant date fair value of no less than 106% of Mr. Rossi’s then current base salary (“LTI awards”), which LTI awards are expected to be made on an annual basis on or around April 1 of each calendar year.

In addition, the employment agreement provides that upon the termination of Mr. Rossi’s employment with the Company without “cause” or by Mr. Rossi for “good reason,” (each as defined in the employment agreement), then subject to his execution and non-revocation of a general release of claims against the Company, Mr. Rossi will be entitled, in addition to any accrued amounts, to (i) continuation of his annual base salary for twelve (12) months following the termination date of his employment (provided that, if Mr. Rossi’s employment is terminated without cause or for good reason within twelve (12) months of a “change in control” (as such term is defined in the Plan), Mr. Rossi will receive an amount equal to one (1) times the sum of his base salary and target bonus), (ii) a pro-rata portion of Mr. Rossi’s annual incentive bonus for the fiscal year in which the termination of his employment occurs and (iii) continued payment by the Company, for the twelve (12) months following the termination date of his employment, of the group health continuation coverage premiums for Mr. Rossi and his dependents under COBRA. The employment agreement also provides that in the event of Mr. Rossi’s death or permanent disability, Mr. Rossi or his estate will be entitled, in addition to any accrued amounts, to a pro-rata annual incentive bonus.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Rossi and any other persons pursuant to which Mr. Rossi was appointed as the Group President, Medical of the Company and there are no family relationships between Mr. Rossi and any director or executive officer of the Company. Additionally, there are no transactions between Mr. Rossi and the Company or its subsidiaries that would be required to be reported under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

Mirion Technologies Appoints Michael Rossi as President of Mirion Medical

Atlanta, GA – October 3, 2022 – Mirion Technologies, Inc. (“Mirion,” “we” or the “Company”) (NYSE: MIR), a global provider of radiation detection, measurement, analysis and monitoring solutions to the medical, nuclear, defense, and research end markets, today announced the appointment of Michael Rossi as the President of Mirion Medical. Michael will report directly to Mirion’s CEO, Tom Logan, who had been acting as President of the business segment.

Michael joins Mirion from Novartis, where he most recently served as the Head of Radioligand Imaging for the Advanced Accelerator Applications business. Prior to Novartis, Michael spent five years at Jubilant Pharma where he served in several different roles with increasing levels of responsibility. Michael also brings experience from GE Healthcare, Tyco Healthcare/Mallinckrodt and Syncor International to the Mirion team. Michael earned a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy degree from the University of the Sciences – Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and carries the Authorized Nuclear Pharmacist Certification from Butler University. Michael has also served on several Boards of Directors and remains a Licensed Pharmacist in the state of Pennsylvania.

“I am thrilled to welcome Michael to the Mirion team,” said Tom Logan, Mirion’s CEO. “Michael has a unique blend of domain experience and leadership qualities in the nuclear medicine space. His appointment comes at an exciting time for the Company, as we aim to drive organic and inorganic growth and margin expansion across our medical business. I am confident that Michael will accelerate the attainment of our healthcare ambitions.”

“I am incredibly excited to be joining Mirion Medical at such an impactful time in the Company’s growth trajectory,” added Michael Rossi. “What Tom and the team have built over the last few years is truly impressive and I look forward to building off the solid momentum with my new colleagues.”
